

Carleton Community High School Hall of Fame

Carleton has been fortunate to see many former students go on to achieve great things . Here are just a few examples:

James Addy - MSc in Neuroscience and musician

Keal Carfile – Rugby League Sheffield Eagles

Tom Carr—Rugby League Doncaster

Danielle Chung – Degree in Languages at Leicester University and now doing a Masters Degree in Translation.

James Clare – Rugby League, Bradford Bulls

Jamie Davis – Actor. Graduated from Italia Conti and went on to appear in many television programmes the most recent being BBC 1's Death in Paradise. He has also worked with the RSC can be seen in the BBC Drama 'Casualty'.

James Dickinson –Doctor of Engineering, Extreme Rock Climber & Mountaineer

Miles Harrison – Doctor

Paul Green - Football, Oldham Athletic and Republic of Ireland

Rachel Holmes –Masters Degree in English Literature and Spanish Language – University of Oxford, also PhD in Literature at St Andrew's University

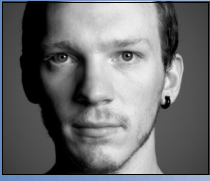

Max Litchfield – British Swimming Gold Medal holder 400m & 2016 Olympic Games qualifier

Jessica Lockett - Designer, Cosmopolitan Magazine, London

Connor Lovell - Studying at Cambridge University

Anthony Middleton - Artistic Director. Anthony has his own dance company, 'The Middleton Corpus'. He has performed with The Ballet Boyz and is currently based in London.

Rhys Oates – Football, Hartlepool United

Larne Patrick, – Rugby League, Wigan

Naomi Rothwell - Artistic Director, Lunabag Theatre and founder of The Lost Spectacles Company

Maxine Taylor, Classically trained soprano , performing nationally and abroad

Laura Varley –Studying Engineering at Oxford University

Abby Ward –Best UK Under 17 high jumper

Danny Williams – Dancer. Former Head Boy, at Urdang Academy London, has appeared on Strictly Come Dancing.

Jonathan Woolgar - Composer. Masters' Composing Programme at the Royal Academy of Music. His compositions have been performed at The Bridgewater Hall in Manchester, The Royal Albert Hall and on Radio 3.

Cameron Yates –Has worked as Part of the Queen's Guard and The Coldstream Guards. Ceremonial duties included Trooping The Colour, Buckingham Palace and Windsor Castle. He has also done a 9 month tour of Afghanistan.

Jo Crewe – We are delighted that Jo has chosen to return to Carleton, this time as Deputy Headteacher!

Richard Pool, Former Head Boy, Assistant Headteacher, Carleton Community High School

Andrew Durham –Former Head Boy, History Teacher, Carleton Community High School

Dan Snowden –Former Head Boy, History Teacher, Carleton Community High School